KAT FABRICATORS ACQUIRES GOODALL COUNTERTOPS

KAT Fabricators (“KAT”), a 30-year-old stone fabrication company headquartered in Dallas, Texas, is pleased to announce the acquisition of Goodall Distributors Inc. (“Goodall”), a 50-year-old stone fabrication shop also headquartered in Dallas, Texas effective September 1, 2024. Jim Paulissen, KAT Fabricators Commercial Division Director stated, “We are excited for these two venerable Dallas stone businesses to combine their strengths to better the clients experience.” Also, Mike Ogden, President of KAT stated “During my 29 years with KAT we have always been committed to and known for our quality fabrication and installation as well as on-time and on-budget for the projects we work on. There is no doubt that adding Goodall to the KAT platform will only further our mission of being the best stone fabrication company there is in the market.”

Many Goodall people will be coming to KAT in the acquisition including James Moody, Rene Corona, Teresa Cervantes and others from the shop and install crews.

KAT operates in four divisions: Commercial with Jim Paulissen as director, Multi-Family with Michelle Phelps as director, Big Box Retail (Home Depot and Lowes stores throughout North Texas) and Residential with Crystal Sprowls as director. KAT’s strategic plan is to continue to grow the stone fabrication business through internal sales growth and strategic acquisition.
